

Name: _____

Date: _____

Environmental and Human Impact Vocabulary Crossword

Across

2. When a plant bends towards the light.

6. When a plant seed sits in a package for a long period of time, without growing.

8. When the numbers of Canadian geese increase due to more individuals joining a flock.

9. The number of organisms in a population that pass away during a year.

10. When the numbers of a species go very low and scientists become very worried about its ability to survive.

11. A species is introduced to a new area which is strange to it, and it has no natural predators.

13. The amount of offspring born each year.

15. Items like space, food, shelter, mates that keep a check on the size of a population.

16. The maximum amount of individuals that an area can hold, due to food, water, space, mates, etc.

17. When a number of foxes leave an area due to not enough food, space, etc.

Down

1. A process in which algae over grow in a pond due to fertilizer, and then when the algae dies and decomposes, much oxygen is removed from the pond, affecting fish.

3. Chemicals used to help plants grow.

4. The combination of annual average temperature and precipitation.

5. The amount of individuals that live in a specific area.

7. The wise and careful use of natural resources.

12. When a species completely dies out.

14. Long periods without rain, causing the area to become dry.