

Name: _____

Date: _____

Environmentalism

Across

4. Vice President vocal about environmental concerns
 9. Government-owned land ostensibly held in trust for the public but potentially exploited for energy resources
 13. Combustible rock formed from prehistoric organic matter; nonrenewable energy source
 14. Process of injecting high-pressure liquid into rocks to extract oil or natural gas
 15. Political party characterized by concerns about climate change and its threat to the U.S. and the world
 18. Federal agency responsible for environmental management; established in 1970
 19. An example of pros and cons of fracking on a community (city, ST)

21. Political party characterized by monetizing the environment and skepticism about climate change
 23. An energy source that is not ultimately depleted when used
 24. Action or thought motivated by concern about the environment
Down
 1. Changes in the environment, particularly impacted by industrialization
 2. International treaty to reduce carbon emissions
 3. Renewable energy source created by capturing energy from the sun
 5. Development that can continue to meet levels of need without compromising the environment
 6. River in Michigan; municipal water supply known for its toxic water pollution and its impact on local population

7. Group of ozone-depleting greenhouse gases; chemicals employed for industrial uses
 8. Gases in the atmosphere responsible for trapping heat in Earth's atmosphere
 10. Flammable gas used as fuel; nonrenewable energy source
 11. Horrific environmental disaster involving a community built over a toxic waste dump (city, ST)
 12. Largest contributor to the greenhouse effect
 16. Renewable energy source created by capturing energy from the wind
 17. Increase in temperature of the Earth's atmosphere; one aspect of climate change
 20. Early legislation mandating air quality standards and regulatory laws
 22. Acronym to describe those who oppose hazardous facilities in their neighborhoods