

Equality and Diversity

Across

3. People with this are likely to use language literally, and may misinterpret what is being said due to difficulties recognising facial expressions

6. Do not lean on it. Do not crouch down when speaking to a user. Attempt to put yourself at the same level by sitting on a chair.

8. •Do not correct or speak for a person. Wait while the person talks and do not finish their sentences.

9. A working animal and should not be treated as a pet

10. Current issue relating to the film and television industry.

Down

1. Someone who changes from male to female(or vice versa)

2. Denote a range of identities that do not correspond to established ideas of male and female.

4. •People with this may experience difficulties with reading, handwriting, spelling,

5. Belonging to a social group that has a common national or cultural tradition.

7. A woman who marries another woman