

E-safety criss-cross

Across

2. the activity of moving from page to page on the World Wide Web

5. to look at information on the internet

7. false information deliberately and often covertly spread in order to influence public opinion or obscure the truth

8. facts and statistics collected together for reference

10. A person who uses computers to gain unauthorized access to data

Down

1. giving the wrong idea or impression

3. Information about a person's life, work, interests, etc. on a social networking website

4. the state of being free from danger or threat

6. use a password to access the full functionality or data of (a computer, mobile phone)

9. keep safe from strangers and viruses