

Name: _____

Date: _____

Essay Terms

Across

3. an essay where you try to convince your reader with emotions and personal experiences
5. an essay that shows or explains your idea or opinion
9. in this type of writing, a writer shares her opinion and proves it with examples or stories
12. your essay should include these types of experiences
14. at the end of your essay, it is a good idea to include this to reinforce your reasons or main points

15. the main idea of any essay
16. the opinion you're proving in an argumentative essay
17. these are given to prove your thesis and topic sentence

Down

1. this gives your reader a glimpse of what is to come (your body paragraphs)
2. an essay where you use facts and evidence to prove your claim
4. finish your essay with a strong sentence that urges your reader to do something or leaves them with something to think about

6. use this to flow smoothly from one paragraph to the next
7. this is the main idea of your paragraph
8. instead of providing multiple examples, you can tell one of these in your body paragraph
10. this grabs your reader's attention in the beginning
11. an essay is all about...
13. wrap up your paragraph with this

Word Bank

examples	expository	topic sentence	thesis	claim review	bold statement	you	argumentative	closing persuasive	transition	essay	personal	preview
hook	story			