

Estate Planning & Giving to Others

Across

2. Give something in order to help achieve or provide something.

3. A written document with instructions for disposing of assets after death. A will can only be enforced through the probate court.

5. organization that collects money for special purposes.

6. The quality of being kind and generous.

11. An entity that holds assets for the benefit of certain other persons or entities.

12. Reviving valueables from a family member/ friend who has passed on.

Down

1. something that is given to a charity, especially a sum of money.

4. A written document that states you do not wish to be kept alive by artificial means when the illness or injury is terminal.

7. A clear outline for what should happen upon death of an individual.

8. Person or institution named in a will to carry out its instructions. Female is executrix. Also called a personal representation.

9. Assets and debts left by an individual at death.

10. Basically, anything you own, including your home and other real estate, bank accounts, life insurance, investments, furniture