

Ethical and Legal Concepts

Across

7. Disregard or failure to perform a certain function

9. A uniform or constant fact of principle

12. Revealing personal information about an individual without their consent

15. Principles of right or good conduct

16. Failure to give care that is normally expected, resulting in injury to another person

17. The unlawful taking of property from another

18. False written statement that causes a person ridicule or contempt, or causes damage to their reputation

19. Permission granted voluntarily by a person who is sound of mind and aware if all the factors involved

20. Restraining an individual or restricting an individual's freedom

Down

1. The act of recording

2. The granting of permission for healthcare without a formal agreement

3. A mutual agreement to exchange privileges or relationships

4. The use of force or intimidation to obtain compliance

5. The entitlements a person has in society

6. To convey in writing, by gestures, or verbally the agreement of a patient to receive treatment

8. Any professional misconduct, unreasonable lack of skill or fidelity in professional duties, or illegal or immoral conduct

10. Denotes legal responsibility

11. Any care that results in physical harm or pain, or mental anguish

13. An unlawful physical attack upon another

14. Any spoken words that are untrue to a reputation