

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ethics

Across

- 1. specific guidelines to direct professional ethical practice & quality of care
- 4. the science or study of morals, values & principles; comprises the principles of right and good
- 11. the inability (on the part of the professional) to separate the therapeutic relationship from personal feelings & expectations for the client
- 12. a basic truth
- 13. Adherence to professional status, methods, and standards

Down

- 2. applying professional touch in a structured setting for the purpose of healing
- 3. knowledge base & practice parameters
- 5. consent that is given after being fully educated about the process of treatment and understand that participation is voluntary
- 6. support given among professionals of similar experience & skill set

- 7. a professional relationship where a professional with experience & skill provides support & guidance to a less experienced professional
- 8. type of touch used to support & convey awareness & empathy for the client as a whole person
- 9. type of touch used to achieve specific anatomic outcome
- 10. When the scope of practice overlap or personal and professional relationships overlap