

Ethics Week 1 Review (Ch. 1 & 3)

Across

- 3. What is the systematic study of and reflection of morality?
10. Actions that are imposed by others or self imposed
11. Traits and dispositions or attitudes that are needed to foster human relationships
13. You face a challenge about the morally right thing to do- but both options are morally right, you can't do both

Down

- 1. Barrier of knowing something is wrong but you are not sure what is wrong
2. A type of Morality that lines up with societal values
4. Type of morality that determines who you are and what your own morality is
5. From an ethical point of view, who should be the moral agent?
6. A situation that has a serious negative moral implication
7. Objects or things that a person holds dear
8. Type of morality: pharmacy as a group
9. An issue that has a moral challenge embedded in it
12. The difference between right and wrong, composed of values, duties, and character traits