

Name: _____ Date: _____

Ethics Week - June 2019

Across

6. A situation in which an employee's personal interest interfere or appear to interfere with their ability to perform their job or make decisions without bias is called a _____.
7. Those representatives are present across North America to help you talk, and/or raise any concerns you may have.
9. Employees remain _____ when reporting an alleged non compliance violation.
10. The number of "D's" principles.
11. The _____ guarantees anonymity to employees whenever they (want to) report a concern.

Down

1. The core text that gather the values, standards and ethical principles that guide your daily operations and the company's business.
2. At any moment the employees need to be careful about any _____ information or documents they deal with or may be in possession with.
3. The main action that any person of the company shall do when they are in doubt or might be facing a situation they are not comfortable with is : _____.
4. The _____ Officer is the high-level person to contact in case of any E&C concerns.
5. You need to think 'Compliance' when receiving a _____ from a Third-Party.
8. It is important to _____ with all laws and regulations within our business activity.