

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ethics and Laws

Across

1. type of consent in which a patient gives express authorization for provision of care or transport
6. regulatory developments, contractual obligations and disputes
10. communication of false information that damages the reputation of a person
18. a person you choose to make health care decisions in the event that you become unable to do so
20. actions that are improper and not acceptable or professional conduct or medical unnecessary
23. touching a patient or providing emergency care without consent
24. restraining/ restricting an individual's freedom
25. focuses on relationships between people and the protection of a person's rights
28. Contains information about the care that has been provided to the patient

29. permission granted in the knowledge of the possible consequences

30. right to live in a caring environment free from abuse, mistreatment and neglect

31. rights such as advance directives, living will, or durable power of attorney

Down

2. focuses on wrongs against a person, property or society
3. spoken defamation
4. to inform patients of their rights regarding decisions toward their own medical care
5. not being able to make your own decisions when injured
7. interaction between two parties in which law recognizes a private, protected relationship
8. an agreement created by actions of the parties involved
9. a list of guarantees for those receiving medical care
11. a set of principals dealing with what is morally right or wrong

12. an agreement between two or more parties

13. failure to act that deviates from the accepted medical standard care

14. going through a persons information without permission granted

15. written documentations that specifies medical treatment for competent patient

16. to secure patient information, assessment findings and treatment provided

17. negligence by a health care provider that leads to substandard treatment

19. legal instructions regarding your medical care if you are unable to make decisions

21. a law to make it easier for people to keep health insurance, protect the confidentiality and security

22. document in which someone being your representative, where you are unable to communicate decisions in all healthcare related

26. a wrongful act or an infringement of a right

27. unlawfully placing a patient in fear of bodily harm