

Everything English

Across

4. The formation or use of words that imitate the sounds associated with the objects or actions they refer to.
8. Giving an object or an animal human traits.
9. A genre in nonfiction which is a story of ones own life.
10. The central point of a peice of writing.

Down

1. Punctuation used in a narrative to indicate speech.

2. A fact, a statement, a quote, or event that backs up a key idea.

3. A struggle between to opposing forces.

5. The highest point of interest, the place where ideas are drawn together, an important turning point in a series of actions, or the most forceful event in a story.

6. Why something happends.

7. One or two words explain the subject being discussed.