

Evidence Based Assessment and Cultural Assessment

Across

1. Used in all settings to monitor progress of short term/chronic health problems
2. process of being raised within a culture and acquiring the norms, values, and behaviors of that group
3. fate of the world depends on the action of supernatural forces for good/evil
8. theory of illness that assumes all events in life have a cause and effect
13. balance of a person
17. method of collecting and analyzing clinical information utilizing assessment, diagnosis, planning, implementation, and evaluation
19. systematic approach emphasizing the best research evidence, clinicians experience, client preferences and values, physical examination and assessment
20. The collection of data about a client's health state

Down

22. what the client says about himself/herself during history taking
23. view that the mind, body, spirit are interdependent and function as a whole within the environment
24. health exists when all aspects of a person are in perfect balance
4. Used for a limited/short term problem, concerns mainly one problem or one body system
5. Priority that is urgent and require prompt intervention to prevent further deterioration
6. A complete health history and full physical examination
7. process of analyzing health data and drawing conclusions to identify diagnoses
9. Rapid collection of the database, often compiled concurrently with lifesaving measures

10. what the health professional observes by inspecting, palpating, percussing, and auscultating during the physical examination
11. process of adopting a culture and behavior of the majority culture
12. Complex phenomenon that includes attitudes, beliefs, self-definitions, norms, roles and values
14. organized system of beliefs concerning the cause, nature, and purpose of the universe as well as the attendance of regular services
15. Priority problem that is important but can be addressed later
16. Priority that is life threatening
18. connection to something larger than oneself and a belief in transcendence
21. a social group that may possess shared traits