

Name: _____

Exam 2 Review - Summer '18

Across

2. Deviant behavior that occurs as a result of an individual being given the master status of criminal is referred to as _____ deviance

7. Child _____ is believed to be one reason for high birth rates

10. This theory answers the question "why someone might commit a crime"

12. This stage is described as having both low birth rates and low death rates

14. Deviant behavior that results in an individual being caught, convicted and labeled is referred to as _____ deviance

15. This type of capitalism is also referred to as new or modern colonialism

16. This theory answers the question "why someone might not commit a crime"

Down

1. Climate change deniers are motivated by primacy of profit is an argument made under this theory

3. When there is insufficient natural resources to support the population the problem is _____-population

4. This stage accounts for 98% of population growth in the world

5. _____ defined goals include getting and education, a good job, and being able to support yourself

6. A stage-based theory used to describe and explain population growth...just the middle word

8. This stage refers to isolated populations focused on daily survival

9. Refers to the relationship between the military and private industry...just the initial letters

11. When there are insufficient numbers of new people being born to support the existing population the problem is _____-population

13. A violation of federal, state or local criminal law