

Exploring the Constitution

Across

- 2. An organization that deals with the people and international relations
4. The private rights of people, and how they will solve disputes among themselves
7. An attempt to influence other's opinions
11. The branch of government that enforces laws
12. The power an executive has to approve or refuse laws

13. A group of average people who participate in trials

14. A person who is a legal resident of a place and has rights and privileges that non-citizens do not have

Down

- 1. The branch of government that makes laws
3. This branch of government interprets the law and runs the court system
5. A formal accusation against a person in a position of power

6. A document that describes how the government will work, and the rights that the people have

8. A meeting of party leaders to decide policy or representatives

9. A voting member of the community

10. A survey that has various information about people