

Expressions & Equations

Across

6. Written differently, but representing the same amount.
 7. A symbol that represents one or more numbers.
 10. To multiply each of the terms within the parentheses by another term that is outside the parentheses.
 11. The number multiplied by a variable in a term.
 13. To use the distributive property and combining like terms to make an expression easier to understand.

14. A term that has no variable.

Down

1. A mathematical sentence that contains an equal sign between two expressions.
 2. A mathematical statement that contains numbers, operations, and variables.
 3. Putting values in for variables.
 4. To find the value of an expression.

5. A mathematical sentence using less than or greater than symbols to compare two quantities.
 8. Any value or values that make an equation true.
 9. A number or the product of a number and a variable in an expression.
 12. The opposite of another operation.