

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Extra Credit Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. long, narrow mountain range on the ocean floor; formed by magma at divergent plate boundaries

5. the process that occurs when one tectonic plate moves under another

7. warm tempered storms, supplied by low pressure systems

9. the long term average weather conditions that occur in a particular region

10. an attractive force that exists between all objects that have mass

14. the movement of Earth's continents over time

15. the partially melted portion of mantle below the lithosphere

18. the atmospheric conditions, along with short-term changes, of a certain place at a certain time

19. energy that travels as vibrations on and in Earth

20. the rigid outermost layer of Earth that includes the upmost mantle and crust

21. an event that causes a magnetic field to reverse direction

Down

1. a violent, whirling column of air in contact with the ground

3. cold winds that blow east to west near the North and South poles

4. the series of natural processes by which water continually moves along oceans, land, and the atmosphere

6. the brittle, rocky layer of Earth

8. the amount of water vapor in the air

11. a boundary between two air masses

12. the atmospheric layer directly above the troposphere

13. the movement of air from an area of high pressure to an area of low pressure

16. the location on Earth's surface directly above an earthquake's focus

17. energy carried by an electromagnetic wave