

Name: _____

FACIALS YALL! try this w/o your book first!

Across

- 2. if necessary, _____ the hands off of the face gently.
4. it is your job to recommend skin care _____ and products used during a facial service.
5. a service that almost always results in return clientele.
11. masks used to calm and soothe sensitive skin
13. the 4 steps to skincare are cleanse, tone, _____ and protect.
14. _____ any implements or supplies that cannot be disinfected
15. masks mixed with water and applied in a thick consistency
17. when tweezing, make sure to protect the clients eyes by using _____
18. a light, relaxing, smoothing, gentle stroking or circular manipulation

21. mask recommended for normal to dry skin

- 23. assists in cleansing and returns oily skin to a normal pH
26. wrap your client in this before beginning services
27. a massage increases _____.
28. an even _____ is essential for the relaxation of the client
29. heated and applied to the skin to rehydrate the skins top layers.
30. _____ the chair, sink , counter, and table/bed before and after every service

Down

- 1. aids in preventing the growth of bacteria on the skin
3. also called percussion, a light tapping or slapping movement
6. massages _____ weak muscle tissue and relieves pain.

7. complete facial manipulations using "insertion to _____"

- 8. a light or heavy kneading and rolling of the muscles
9. begin all facial services with a client _____.
10. a mask increases the _____ of the skin for a temporary time.
12. remove product from containers with this _____.
16. The skin should be cleansed _____.
19. a circular or wringing movement with no gliding
20. a shaking manipulation
22. use this to apply product to the clients face or neck
24. mask recommended for normal/oily skin types
25. once the manipulations have begun, maintain constant _____.