

Name: _____ Date: _____

FAMILY NURSING PREGNANCY

Across

2. molar pregnancy, results from too much production of the tissue that is supposed to develop into the placenta, can turn into chorio carcinoma (grapelike)

5. fertilization outside uterine cavity

7. dark vertical line that appears on the abdomen during pregnancy

10. low implantation of the placenta-PAINLESS

11. due date (subtract 3 months and add 7 days from last menses)

12. 6-9 months of pregnancy

13. first 1-3 months of pregnancy

14. 3-6 months of pregnancy

Down

1. stitch (lasso) around cervix

3. premature separation of the placenta-PAINFUL

4. premature cervical dilation (weak cervix)

6. occurring not long before childbirth

8. total number of confirmed pregnancies that a woman has had

9. number of pregnancies reaching viable gestational age