

F&B Cryptic Crossword

Across

2. Mark Routledge is ...
 4. Treasured president arose from the chair's role
 5. He grieves from the loss of his former position we hear
 12. Rip a lace to win the league
 13. Great British golden breakfast cereal
 16. Drake's valuable vessel
 17. Don't stew, he's gone for a ...
 20. It's a proper bunsen burner, Sir!

21. A lone individual without a partner or friends; not plural heavyweight

22. Jeans from a batting partnership? Never said the man on the ground!m(3,6)

Down

1. His performance gave him lots of these at night!
 3. Please don't tease this rhyme is a crime
 6. Unshaven among the trees
 7. A small farmer supplemented by working as a professional lawyer

8. Don't be scared hug then be gone, unravelled the captain

9. A sure thing Ian!

10. Miss Scarlett in the dining room runs ragged at the end of her spells.

11. Esteemed gent travelling on foot

14. Both a St! Him and his brother.

15. Will I Am's the one in charge of this meeting

18. Jeans from a batting partnership (3,6)

19. Daily toil to make this fisherman's tool