

FNW-1 Vocabulary Assignment

Across

1. An undesirable substance that unintentionally gets into food.
3. Chemical pesticide particles left in food after it is prepared for consumption. Pesticide
4. Maintaining clean conditions to help prevent disease.
9. A substance released into the air or water by industrial plants.
11. Practices that promote good health.
13. The transfer of harmful bacteria from either an object or a food to another food.

14. An organism that lives off another organism, which is called a host.

15. food safety procedure that identifies the steps at which a food product is at risk of biological, chemical, or physical contamination and creates a plan to minimize or eliminate the risk.
16. A disease transmitted by food.

Down

2. A living being so small it can be seen only under a microscope.
5. Poison.

6. An organism that can vary greatly in size and structure and is classified as a plant, such as mold and yeast.

7. Organism that causes foodborne illness, such as bacteria, parasites, viruses, and fungi
8. Single-celled microorganisms that live in soil, water, and the bodies of plants and animals.
10. Single-celled animals.
12. A disease-causing agent that is the smallest type of life-form.