

Name: _____

Date: _____

FRENCH REVOLUTION

Across

1. this group is overthrown by a military coup d'etat by Napoleon Bonaparte
3. Immediate cause of the French Revolution

11. Absolute Monarchy (before 1789) is known as

13. These paris radicals take the king and his family captive.

15. Leader of the Committee of Public Safety

16. Napoleon is defeated and exiled to the island of

18. Uses the new liberal reforms in France to rise up quickly through the military ranks

19. Napoleon is exiled for good at this place until his death

21. The new assembly is fractured between liberals, moderates, and radicals

22. the "citizen king", cousin of Charles X, popular at first but his popularity fades as economic conditions deteriorate (if you're familiar with the novel/musical Les Miserables he was the king)

23. A machine with a vertically moving blade used for beheading people

24. This monarch takes over after Napoleon

25. A French assembly of classes that was summoned for the first time in over 100 years

Down

2. Napoleon makes a brief comeback (100 Days) but is defeated again for the final time at the Battle of

4. They force the Legislative Assembly to suspend the monarchy and to call for a

5. This would be one of Napoleons greatest legacies, although it was a step back for women.

6. Ruled as an absolute monarch, but he was a weak king and very unpopular

7. New constitution written at national assembly

8. More moderate middle class leaders take control and establish a government led by a committee of

9. -takes the throne after the death of his older brother, but is not liked. He abdicates the throne during the July Revolutions of 1830.

10. Most of the radicals are part of this group

12. Napoleon imposes this system to cut off British trade and it fails

14. Representatives of the Third Estate break away from the Estates General and form the _____

17. King Louis XVI wife

20. radicals