

FRMCA L1 Chapter 2 2nd ED

Across

3. A job that requires little or no previous experience; a starting point for all career pathways.

7. A profession or work in a particular field that individuals choose for themselves.

9. A process people use to identify stress for them in their lives.

10. Refers to foodservice employees who work outside the public space.

Down

1. Refers to the foodservice employees who serve guests directly

2. Connecting with several people to build relationships that may result in career advancement, industry updates, and greater knowledge and skills.

4. The use of tools to increase a person's efficiency and productivity. Include planning, goal setting, setting priorities, and delegating.

5. The condition where, or feeling that, demands exceed resources available for use.

6. A series of jobs through which people can advance to further their careers.

8. Someone who can play the role of a wise advisor to help guide a person along his or her career path.