Factors of Production

Across

- 2. An aspect entrepreneurs look out for
- 6. One option to start a business with
- 7. Name the type of capital used to start or expand a business?
- 8. People who have seen an opportunity in the manner that the government allocates tenders to
- 13. Putting money aside is known as
- 14. Minerals and rocks are found the surface
- 15. What is the percentage taken out of a business's pay roll

- 16. What is the remuneration of Natural Resources
- 18. What is the link between employers and employees
- 19. One entrepreneurial quality
- 20. The sun provides us with which energy

Down

- 1. Animal husbandry falls under which natural resource
- 3. What is the remuneration of Labour
- 4. Applies to people who have education and skills

- 5. How do tenderpreneurs get tenders
- 9. Labour is _____ meaning if a worker isn't at work for a day the number of hours he could have worked for are lost
- 10. Which characteristic of capital is infrastructure
- 11. What has the ability to generate economic growth?
- 12. Coal falls under which natural resource category?
- 17. What is the renumeration of capital?

Word Bank

Below Skilled labour Risk taker Saving Interest Trade Union Salaries Solar Rent Investment One percent Public Capital Social Trends Non-renewable Connections Tenderpreneur Perishable Own capital Monetary Capital Agriculture