

Name: _____

Date: _____

Facts About Substance Use

Across

3. Alcohol and marijuana are considered to be ____ drugs in which there is an increase in the risk of subsequent involvement with other drugs
6. Eyes turning red is a result of a ____ in blood pressure when smoking marijuana.
10. Caffeine, nicotine, amphetamines and cocaine are classified as ____.
12. ____ withdrawal can result in death.
14. Not only are drugs known to affect the user it is also known as a ____ disease.

Down

1. TRUE or FALSE. Brain recovery is possible after stopping the use of methamphetamines

2. You cannot receive a DUI if driving after taking your "own" prescription medication such as opioids for pain or benzodiazepines anxiety.
4. ____ is a psychoactive drug. It is a chemical substance that changes brain function and results in alterations in perception, mood, consciousness, cognition, or behavior.
5. ____ is a cheap heroin substitute and you get it by mixing codeine with paint thinner, gasoline, and several other toxic ingredients. Missing the vein during injection can cause flesh eating, deformation and parts of the body to fall off.
7. ____ is a deadly and labelled as a "synthetic" marijuana

8. ____ is known as the "zombie drug". People have been known to turn into cannibals after using excessive amounts of this drug.
9. ____ is a powerful stimulant that can increase physical activity and wakefulness and decrease appetite, even in small doses. Meth abusers can also experience rapid heart rate, irregular heartbeat, and high blood pressure.
11. ____ is the ingredient in marijuana the promotes euphoria.
13. ____ is the legal component in marijuana that helps with anxiety-related behaviors