

Fall Crossword

Across

3. UNC Asheville celebrates the turning of these every fall.
 8. A curved, hollow horn overflowing with fruits and vegetables.
 12. Ella Fitzgerald enjoys fall in this city.
 14. Asheville hosts this Jewish food and culture festival every October.
 15. This type of pie is a Thanksgiving staple.
 16. A slow-moving attraction at many fall festivals.

17. This author wrote, "Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall."
 18. This annual flavor causes chaos when it is released each fall.
Down
 1. The Neighbourhood loves this kind of weather.
 2. This fruit brings families out to orchards to buy bushels for ciders and pies.
 4. Piles of these litter the ground and are fun to jump in.

5. This holiday has pagan roots, but is celebrated in contemporary times with costumes and candy.
 6. This fall holiday is all about food and gratitude.
 7. This is a welcome reprieve for students in October.
 9. The weather gets this in the fall.
 10. Many fall morning are this.
 11. Farmers do this to their crops in fall.
 13. Eliada offers a local version of this fall attraction.