

Name: _____

Date: _____

Family Chapter 9-19

Across

3. A large movement that happened in china during 1919 that changed Chueh-hui's point of view
 4. The club that Venerable Master Kao was a part of
 11. Chueh-hui's nickname given to him by his brothers
 13. The policy Chueh-hsin follows to avoid conflict
 14. The man who orders Chueh-hui to stay at home
 16. The book that Chueh-hui reads during New Year's Day
 17. The woman with limpid eyes and a sad smile who visits the Kao compound on New Year's Day
 18. A type of firework that the family used during New Year's Day; implied to be shiny like a metal

21. The instrument Big Brother was playing on the eighth night of the New Year's celebration
 23. One of the books that Chueh-hui read in middle school
 25. The girl that Chueh-hui helps with breaking off branches of plum blossoms
Down
 1. The tubes that Uncle Ke-ting used against the dragon dancers during the New Year's festival
 2. The festival that was to be held on the fifteenth day of the New Year's celebration
 5. The county over which Jui-chueh's father supervised
 6. Another type of firework used during the New Year's Day festival that has an animal name in it
 7. The girl Chueh-min helps in English

8. The man who wrote "On the Eve"
 9. What Chueh-hui compares his home to after he is forced to stay there
 10. Chueh-hui compares Ming Feng to being as unsullied as this
 12. What Shu-hua was afraid of seeing in the garden
 15. A magazine that Chueh-hui enjoyed reading
 19. What "Mei" stands for
 20. The servant who began stealing money and smoking opium and was later exiled from the Kao compound
 22. The woman who becomes a concubine and an example of what Ming Feng doesn't want to become
 24. The old master who was said to desire a concubine