

Name: _____

Date: _____

Family - Related Problems

Across

7. violence between spouses, former spouse, cohabiting partners, boyfriends or girlfriends, and dates

10. to have only one spouse at a time

11. determined by dividing the number of divorces each year by the total number of existing marriages in that year

13. person is allowed to have more than one spouse, just not at the same time

14. parents & their children

15. power and authority are shared somewhat equally by husband & wife

Down

1. a number of different types of family exist side by side, each having an attraction for some people

2. elaborate networks of visitation & support are found even though each nuclear unit lives separately

3. living together

4. three or more generations of people who live together or in close proximity & whose lives & livelihoods are closely intertwined

5. romantic love as a primary factor drawing couples toward marriage

6. family in which males dominate in the regulation of political & economic decision making, & women & children are subordinate

8. family based on kinship ties that accumulate as a consequence of divorce & remarriages

9. having more than one spouse at the same time

12. a social institution based on kinship that functions to replace members of society & to nurture them