

Fashion History & Industry Review

Across

- 4. London designer known for versatility and “hooligan English fashion”
- 5. Clothes to cater to a wide range of customers; ready to wear clothing.
- 12. American fashion designer known for his All American casual look and simple and unique logo.
- 14. The currently accepted prevailing style.
- 17. One of the 4 major fashion capitals.
- 19. A fashion that retains general acceptance over a very extended period of time.
- 20. American designer known for detailed wedding gowns
- 21. French fashion designer who is known for his designer luggage pattern with his initials on it.
- 22. A characteristic or distinctive form of dress that exists independent of fashion.

- 24. American fashion designer known for his preppy and vintage looks. One of his most well-known lines is his Polo collection of menswear.
- 26. French term for “Fine Tailoring.”
- 27. French fashion designer who created the “new look,” which included dresses for women that had a closely fitting bodice and long, full skirt. He is credited for giving women back joy in fashion after World War II.
- 28. Italian fashion designing duo known for creating pieces that can be described as “modern romantic” and can be worn in different ways.

Down

- 1. American fashion designer who creates funky, youthful fashions that have a sense of humor. She does a cartwheel at the end of each of her fashion shows.
- 2. One of the 4 major fashion capitals.
- 3. London designer know for shoes
- 6. A cross between couture and mass market.

- 7. American fashion designer known for his jeans and sportswear
- 8. American designer known for elegant wear with drama
- 9. American designer know for blue jeans with rivets
- 10. French fashion designer known for the “little black dress”
- 11. American fashion designer who is known for his ready-to-wear garments and accessories.
- 13. One of the main fashion seasons.
- 15. The movement of a fashion into and through the marketplace.
- 16. designer uses less expensive fabrics and cut details on some designs to create an affordable garment
- 18. One of the 4 major fashion capitals.
- 23. A fashion with a sudden burst of popularity.
- 25. One of the 4 major fashion capitals.