

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Fertilizer Vocabulary

Across

3. Where is a place that fertilizer can be applied?
6. What is a place that fertilizer can be applied?
9. What is partially composed of decomposed plants and is made from rotted garden plants?
10. What is the grade of the balance o soil described as?
11. What is the abbreviation of the three most important fertilizer and plant nutrients?
12. What is used to enhance soil and plants stability?

14. What is one form of fertilizer?

15. Whats is a form of fertilizer?

16. What are the bigger nutrients that fertilizers can provide?

17. What are the other, small sub-nutrients in fertilizers?

Down

1. What is one form of fertilizer?

2. What nutrient helps strengthen plants' abilities to resist disease and plays an important role in increasing crop yields and overall quality?

4. ____ are symptoms that are caused by lack of specific nutrients

5. What nutrient helps plants convert other nutrients into usable building blocks with which to grow?

7. Man made fertilizers are ____.

8. What is the fertilizer nutrient that is necessary for photosynthesis, building proteins, etc. and is the most important plant nutrient?

13. All natural fertilizers are ____.