

Name: _____

Date: _____

Fibres to Fabrics

Across

2. Examples of _____ fibres are viscose and acetate
 6. Animal sources include _____ and silk
 11. Cotton grows in _____, moist climates
 12. Flax grows in _____, damp climates
 15. Examples of synthetic fibres are _____ and acrylic
 18. _____ fibres come from plant and animal sources
 19. Manufactured fibres are created from a _____ of raw materials

20. plant sources include cotton and _____

Down

1. _____ describes the thickness of manufactured fibres
 3. When cotton & polyester are mixed together _____ is created
 4. linen comes from the _____ plant
 5. Wool is the most common _____ fibre used
 7. Silk is produced from a _____
 8. when wool is cleaned and combed it is called _____

9. Cotton comes from _____

10. The worms spin _____ of silk
 13. Regenerated fibres contain _____ because they come from plants
 14. Undesirable properties of cotton are _____, not very stretchy, burns easily & shrinks
 16. Printing means applying colour and _____ to one side of the fabric only
 17. Wool is used to make household products such as blankets, _____ and rugs