

Figurative Language

Across

2. The reoccurrence of accent or stress in lines of verse
8. A four-line stanza in a poem
9. "Do no be blind; open your mind!" The matching of a vowel or consonant sounds is a _____
10. The way the author chooses words, arranges them in sentences or in lines of dialogue or verse, and develops ideas and actions with description, imagery, and other literary techniques

Down

1. A division or unit of a poem that is repeated in the same form
3. How the text is put together
4. "The floor is as slippery as a fish" is an example of _____
5. A literary work that criticizes human misconduct and ridicules vices, stupidity, and follies
6. "Shall I compare thee to a summer's day" is a shakespeare _____
7. "a lonely, dark cottage in the middle of the woods" is an example of _____