

Name: _____ Date: _____

Figurative Language Crossword

Across

4. An intentional and extreme exaggeration for emphasis or effect

6. Opinion or declaration stated with conviction

11. An author's choice of words for clear and effective expression

12. Device where specific words or phrases are repeated for emphasis

15. The use of the same grammatical structure in a sentence or paragraph

16. Opposite of hyperbole, downplaying a dramatic event

19. Supports the statement that is nearly a repetition of the idea in slightly different terms

21. A conclusion drawn from limited or insufficient evidence, result of bias

22. A reference to a literary work of art, place, event, person, or book

Down

1. Figure of speech that concerns word order, syntax, letters, and sounds, as opposed to the meaning of words

2. A question asked to make a point and draw audience attention

3. A sentence structured where the verb comes before the subject

5. Figurative language where non-human things are given human characteristics

7. Also known as a hyperbole; exaggeration of details beyond logic

8. A comparison between two unlike things

9. Direct comparison using like or as

10. The direct opposite; a rhetorical contrast using parallels within a sentence

13. Used to create meaning that seems to contradict the literal meaning

14. A non-literal or figurative language; examples: metaphors, simile, hyperbole

17. An idea, object, or concept that repeats itself throughout text/drama

18. Figurative language that makes comparisons in unexpected ways (extended comparison)

20. Ethos, Logos, Pathos