

Name: _____

Date: _____

Figurative Language

Across

4. a literary device in which contradictory statements or situations reveal a reality that is different from what appears to be true.

6. a figure of speech that makes a comparison between two unlike things

7. figure of speech and literary device that creates heightened effect through deliberate exaggeration

9. is a reference, typically brief, to a person, place, thing, event, or other literary work with which the reader is presumably familiar

10. The phrase is understood to mean something quite different from what individual words of the phrase would imply

11. a literary device that refers to the use of figurative language to evoke a sensory experience or create a picture with words for a reader

12. takes the form of an ironic remark, somewhat rooted in humor, that is intended to mock something

13. This is a pairing of opposing words that contradict each other

Down

1. is defined as a word which imitates the natural sounds of a thing

2. a literary device that refers to the use of symbols in a literary work; it represents something beyond literal meaning

3. a figure of speech in which an idea or thing is given human attributes and/or feelings or is spoken of as if it were human

5. a false illustration of something, a deceptive impression, or a false belief

8. a figure of speech in which two essentially dissimilar objects or concepts are expressly compared with one another through the use of "like" or "as"

Word Bank

personification imagery

simile idiom

allusion illusion

oxymoron

onomatopoeia

symbolism

metaphor

sarcasm

irony

hyperbole