

Name: _____

Date: _____

Final Poetry Crossword Puzzle

Across

2. "burbled", "r-r-r-ipped", "Snicker-snack" are examples of this
6. "One Perfect Rose" end in _____, when the speaker says she prefers limousines to roses.
8. the repetition of vowel sounds in words that are close together
11. "Jane has a heart of stone" is an example of this..
12. 6-line poem; 1st & last lines can be opposite

13. a poem in which the 1st letters of each line spell a word
14. a 3-lined poem with a rhyme pattern of AAA or ABA
16. the repetition of consonant sound
17. poetry without meter or rhyme

Down

1. the place from which haiku's originated
3. poem made up of words that are placed to form a shape

4. the nonsense poem (you read) about monster is called this...
5. Dr. Seuss used this technique in many of his poems
7. humorous poem; AABBA pattern
9. a 3-lined poem containing 17 syllables
10. language that appeals to the senses
15. "good vs. evil" is the _____ of the poem written by Lewis Carroll