

Final Project

Across

3. free from an obligation or liability imposed on others.
 5. examination of a person's premises by law enforcement officers looking for evidence of the commission of a crime, and the taking of articles of evidence.
 10. the rights of citizens to political and social freedom and equality.
 13. a tax levied on every adult, without reference to income or resources.
 15. the policy of treating employees and others without discrimination, especially on the basis of their sex, race, or age.
 16. the suppression or prohibition of any parts of books, films, news, etc.
 17. writing on behalf of a business with the intent of earning revenue or a profit
 18. a document constituting a fundamental guarantee of rights and privileges.

19. an American printer and journalist in New York City.
 20. the quality of being acceptable or valid, especially as evidence in a court of law.

Down

1. federal legislation passed in 1990 that prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities.
 2. a clause exempting certain classes of people or things from the requirements of a piece of legislation affecting their previous rights, privileges, or practices.
 4. a legal document authorizing a police officer or other official to enter and search premises.
 6. United States jurist who served as chief justice of the United States Supreme Court;
 7. The act of implicating oneself in a crime or exposing oneself to criminal prosecution.
 8. the concept that women and men should receive equal pay for jobs calling for comparable skill and responsibility.
 9. an arrangement between a prosecutor and a defendant whereby the defendant pleads guilty to a lesser charge in the expectation of leniency.
 11. a Louisiana French-speaking Creole plaintiff in the United States Supreme Court decision in Plessy v. Ferguson.
 12. a political concept which is central to some political ideologies and is used regularly in political discourse, often in contrast to the term equality of opportunity
 14. the right to vote in political elections.