

Name: _____

Date: _____

Final Review

Across

1. is to pay for unforeseen expenses
 6. is additional money after all expenses are paid
 11. carry high fees and higher interest rates than regular credit card purchases
 13. depends on amounts you owe and payment history
 15. protects against damage to your own vehicle when you are at fault in hitting another car
 17. Jones Industrial Average is a collection of 30 corporation in USA
 18. expenses that do not change monthly

20. FDIC insures up to..

Down

2. money deposited for a set period of time
 3. Hourly pay is when you are...
 4. is to report taxable income a worker received
 5. are charged annually, once a year such as American Express charge card
 7. mortgages, car loans and college loans are examples of...
 8. Financial goals are the...
 9. is a record of credit card purchases and payments
 10. Saving up for college is a...

12. is something of value to secure a loan like a house, property, car
 14. are forms of pay other than salary and wages
 16. written amounts are there so that other numbers can't be added to change the amount for fraud
 19. is employers sponsored retirement account, can include contributions from employer and has a limit on how much to contribute each year

Word Bank

Cash advances	paid by the hour	1st step in budgeting	Discretionary
Certificate	Check	401 K	Fixes expenses
Annual credit card fees	Credit history	$250,000	Form W-2
Short term goal	Collateral	Installment loans	FICO score
Collision coverage	Benefits	The DOW	Emergency fund