

Name: _____

Date: _____

Final Review for OTA 105

Across

2. Acknowledgement that an individual has the qualifications to be an entry-level practitioner

4. Knowing one's true nature. Recognizing one's own behaviors, emotional responses, and effect on others.

9. In the OT practice Framework, client factors, performance skills, and context are all apart of?

11. In the code of ethics the principle that means faithfulness in professional relationships and describing the interactions between the OT practitioners and their colleagues.

12. 1 major component of theory

16. An active listening technique in which the client's thoughts and feelings are summarized or simplified.

17. Can SERVICE COMPETENT OT practitioners (either OT or OTAs) supervise students during level 1 fieldwork?

18. The ability of the OTA to place themselves in the client's position and to understand what he or she is experiencing.

20. In the OT Practice Framework Outcomes, occupational profile, and interventions are all apart of the ?

22. This is a strategy used in therapeutic reasoning when the OT practitioner wants to understand the client as a person, takes place during face to face interaction between the client and practitioner.

23. The Mother of OT

Down

1. The first step to the intervention process is the

3. guide(s) practice by providing a link between theory and practice. Influences an OT's problem solving process and provides guidelines for the OT practitioners selection of evaluation used, clinical reasoning, and treatment planning.

5. Accredits OT educational programs

6. The 2nd major component of theory

7. The duty of the health-care professional to tell the truth and report comprehensive and accurate information

8. Type of Supervision required for students or aides

10. Active listening technique in which the listener repeats back exactly the words of the speaker as they are heard.

13. Self care, productivity, and leisure are all measured during this assessment

14. Type of supervision required for entry-level COTAs

15. Who is responsible for monitoring the compliance of employers and fining those settings that do not follow the regulations set by Center for Disease Control and Prevention?

19. Can OTAs perform the initial evaluations on patients?

21. Minimum Data Set is abbreviated as?