

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Finance 101 Chapter 3

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| 1. money received from someone else. | A. business |
| 2. the payment to the worker for the service done. | B. employer |
| 3. an activity that brings income through selling goods/services. | C. loss |
| 4. a person working for another person or organization for pay. | D. salary |
| 5. the person or organization providing the jobs. | E. profit |
| 6. an organization formed by a group of people acting together. | F. revenue. |
| 7. a person who earns a living by working for him/herself. | G. self-employed |
| 8. money made from a business as a result of more revenues than expenses. | H. corporation |
| 9. the money made from selling goods or services. | I. employee |
| 10. the money spent for running the business. | J. income |
| 11. the opposite of profit; result of more expenses than revenues. | K. expenses |