

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Financial Literacy

Across

1. A type of bank account in which interest is not usually applied to the principal, but offers a safe place to store your money with high liquidity.
6. The knowledge and skills to manage money
9. Anything you spend money on bills, food, clothes, etc.
11. When money is added into a bank account
13. the total amount of an employee's earnings before deductions are taken out

14. A budget is a plan of how you will spend the money that you make or receive.

15. A payment type that does not automatically draw money from your checking account. Instead, it provides a short-term loan that you can use to make purchases.

Down

2. The total amount of money in a banking account at any given time.
3. A bank account that earns interest
4. Allows you to have money come into your account automatically.

5. The amount of money that you are able to charge to a credit card.

7. Earnings from work or investment

8. A payment type that allows you to make electronic purchases that debit the cost of the purchase directly from your checking account.

10. Amount of income left after taxes and deductions have been taken out.

12. A check written for more money than your account contains