

Name: _____

Financial Literacy

Across

2. a small plastic card issued by a financial institution that is connected to either your savings or checking account

7. the amount of money you can actually take home to spend, save, and share.

11. money; bills and coins; used in exchange for goods and/or services

12. two types; Social Security tax and Medicare tax, both are taken out of your paycheck and paid to the federal government

13. tax paid by consumers on purchased goods and some services

14. buildings, homes, and land

15. helps pay for many medical services for people 65 years or older

Down

1. a small official preprinted note that contains information about a checking account with a financial institution

3. a small plastic card issued by a financial company

4. the money paid to the federal government based on your income

5. money that one gets back when one retires or becomes disabled

6. tax that is paid to the local government on real estate

8. how much you make before taxes and deductions are taken out

9. how you manage your net income to pay bills, entertainment, food, and other necessities in your life

10. how much money you earn

Word Bank

debit card

budget

gross income

social security

creditcard

property tax

sales tax

income

real estate

cash

payroll tax

check

incometax

Medicare

net income