

Financing the government

Across

2. the fact to having the right to something
 5. is paid when someone buys a good or service
 7. a set of related measure or activities with a particular aim
 9. the spending for federal programs that must receive approval each year
 10. a 12 month year of the federal government begins october 1st and ends september 30
 11. using money on items including national defense and highways and can differ from year to year.

Down

1. intergovernmental revenue the funds that one level of government receives from another level of government
 3. The federal spending required by law that continues without the need for congressional approval each year
 4. a tax based on the value of land and property that people own
 6. a period of 12 months
 8. gives official approval for the government to spend money

Word Bank

intergovernmental revenue
 year
 property tax Mandatory spending

discretionary programs
 sales tax
 bill

entitlement
 spending fiscal