

Fingerprints

Across

3. what is made up of two loops combined into one print?
 6. what fingerprints are made of the sweat and oil on the skin's surface?
 12. what is the study of the uniqueness of friction ridge structures?
 13. a form used to record/preserve a person's fingerprints is called?
 14. recognizable pattern of ridges found in the end joints of fingers with formed lines on surfaces are?
 17. when was the first U.S crime solved with fingerprints?

18. what is the absorption of light at one wavelength?
 19. which is more exact DNA or fingerprints?
 20. prints that are left on soft receiving surface with no enhancement are called?

Down

1. what fingerprint has a spike in the center of the arch?
 2. a series of ridges and grooves that help grip items are?
 4. what type of fingerprint is most common?

5. what reacts with amino acids and leaves prints in good quality?
 7. visible prints that do not need enhancement are called?
 8. fingerprints are considered _____ evidence?
 9. what is the most common hair used in brushes?
 10. what is the area found near the center of all loop and whorl patterns?
 11. what is Automated Fingerprint Identification System?
 15. the study of fingerprints is called?
 16. what would be considered the rarest type of fingerprint?

Word Bank

patent	dermal ridges	chicago	plastic	dactylography
the arch	physical	fingerprints	ridgeology	ridge patterns
ten print cards	AFIS	ninhydrin	tented arch	latent
the loop	double loop whorl	fluorescence	camel hair	core