

First, Do No Harm

Across

4. inserted in the body to treat diseases or perform a surgical procedure.

6. a period of keeping awake during the time usually spent asleep

11. partly or wholly incapable of movement.

12. a state of deep unconsciousness that lasts for a prolonged or indefinite period

15. a colorless sweet-tasting crystalline compound that is found in many plants and is used in various foods and medical products.

17. Able to react both as a base and as an acid.

18. is usually kept in a sealed package, to ensure that it's perfectly clean.

20. Is the adult and pediatric study of the kidneys and its diseases

21. Healthy skin, bone, kidney, liver, or other tissue that is taken from one part of the body to replace diseased or injured tissue

22. this is an abnormal buildup of cerebrospinal fluid in the ventricles of the brain.

23. is the inflammation of the ventricles in the brain

24. an endocrinological disorder characterized decreased levels of the hormone aldosterone.

Down

1. due to a failure of response to aldosterone, and levels of aldosterone are actually elevated, due to a lack of feedback inhibition.

2. a procedure in which liquid or gas is injected into the rectum

3. an appliance or aperture for ventilating a room or other space.

5. performed on very small structures, such as blood vessels and nerves, with specialized instruments under a microscope.

7. a glass tube that radiates light when phosphor on its inside surface is made to fluoresce by ultraviolet radiation from mercury vapor.

8. is a physician who possesses specialized knowledge and skill in the diagnosis and treatment of lung conditions and diseases.

9. a narrow strip of material, typically used to hold or fasten something

10. An incision in the windpipe made to relieve an obstruction to breathing

13. moral principles that govern a person's behavior or the conducting of an activity

14. incapable of producing any useful result; pointless.

16. a congenital defect of the spine in which part of the spinal cord and its meninges are exposed through a gap in the backbone

19. inflammation of both the small intestine and the colon