

Fish Crossword

Across

2. receives information from the visual systems
 4. a jawless class of fish
 8. one of the two fins located behind the gills of a fish
 10. fish that live in an environment with more than 0.05% of salt concentration.
 13. openings in the shark's skin which allow water to enter and flow through the gills
 14. enamel tipped structures on shark skin surface
 17. muscle chambers that pump blood out of the heart

18. a sac filled with gas that controls buoyancy of fish
 19. jointed/cartilaginous or bony structures behind the jaws in fish
 20. in fish, one of the paired fins positioned in the ventral, posterior portion of the body

Down

1. fish that live in an environment with less than 0.05% of salt concentration.
 3. a species of fish that tie themselves in knots to escape predators

5. a membranous winglike structure that helps fish and other aquatic animals propel, balance, and guide their body
 6. organ that produces gametes
 7. specialized sensory system running the length of both sides of a fish's body
 9. seminal fluid in male fish
 11. a method of reproduction in fish
 12. a hard plate that is attached to each side of the head of a fish that covers gills and is open at the rear
 15. fin that extends from the tail
 16. when a fish alternates between relaxing and flexing its muscles to move through water