

Flatworm Crossword

Across

- 2. A class of parasitic worms of the flatworm phylum. They are informally referred to as cestodes
- 4. A knob-shaped structure with hooks and suckers that attach to the intestinal lining of a host such as a cow or human.
- 6. A class of platyhelminths or flatworms, mostly aquatic and having cilia on the body surface
- 7. Contains muscles , nerves, flame cells, and male or female reproductive organs
- 9. A worm of a phylum that includes the planarians together with the parasitic flukes and tapeworms.

10. Tubelike muscular organ

Down

- 1. Bulblike _____ lined with cilia sweep water and excretory substances into tubules
- 3. A process in which body parts that are missing due to damage or predation can be regrown
- 5. A group of nerve cell bodies that coordinates incoming and outgoing nerve signals
- 8. A class within the phylum Platyhelminthes. It includes two groups of parasitic flatworms, known as flukes. They are internal parasites of molluscs and vertebrates. Most trematodes have a complex life cycle with at least two hosts