

Floral Vocabulary

Across

- 1. the process of plants losing water through stomata in thier leaves
- 2. the process in which cut flowers & foliage has been tested to extend thier freshness
- 5. adding white to a color lightens this
- 11. cell process in which stored food reserves are converted into useful energy for the plant
- 14. describes the lightness or darkness of a hue
- 15. a purpose of this is to hide the mechanics in a flower arrangement
- 16. the measure of color intensity when gray is added to a hue
- 17. supplies, methods and materials that designers use to place and hold flowers and foliage in an arrangement

- 19. the relationship between the flowers, foliage and container
 - 20. the impression of the design being stable and self-supported
- Down
- 3. the process of converting nutrients, water, carbon dioxide and sunlight into food for plants
 - 4. floral material that has an "airy" look to create the finishing touch
 - 6. a hue darkened by the addition of black
 - 7. firmly wrapping or tying similar materials together to form a larger, individual unit
 - 8. the tight positioning of flower clusters at the base of an arrangement forming rounded hills

- 9. the relationship between the completed arrangement and its location
- 10. cutting flowers stems properly and providing proper treatment at any stage of the distribution process
- 12. the brightness or darkness of a hue
- 13. the japanese style of floral arrangements characterized by thier linear forms
- 18. the geometric shape or line design that forms the outline of the flower arrangement