

Name: _____

Date: _____

Flowers for Algernon

Across

3. This word is connected to excitement
7. This is a fancy name for the end of a story
8. This type of character shows tremendous change throughout the story
13. This type of character never changes during a story
16. Corresponding in size or amount to something else
18. What a story teaches us about human nature is known as _____
19. This word refers to a specific line of work or area of study

20. Charlie falls in love with his teacher named Ms. _____

Down

1. To be weakened
2. This is the part of the story that comes directly after the climax
4. This action is where the conflict begins to steadily increase
5. This story is structured into progress _____
6. This is the part of the story that occurs in the beginning. In this part of the story we meet the main characters and learn about the setting.
9. This is the part of the story of greatest interest or excitement

10. This character is the protagonist of the story Flowers for Algernon

11. This is a conflict that occurs within a character

12. To prove a claim or theory to be false

14. Mrs. Vento would be very upset with you if she heard you use this word

15. Charlie's intelligence was not long lasting. It was only _____.

17. This is the name of the mouse that is connected to Charlie during the story