

Flowers for Algernon

Across

- 3. an unskilled laborer
4. a restaurant
5. united or merged into a single group or mass
7. having two or more wives or husbands at the same time
13. a cave
14. the quality of being naïve, meaning simple and childlike
16. a divine announcement or revelation
17. to take or assume power

18. a genetic disorder that, if untreated, causes severe mental retardation in infants

19. to insult openly or purposely; offend, slight

20. to put forward for consideration

Down

1. the concluding part of a speech

2. the mind or mental processes that show truth

6. a person who makes a record in shorthand of what people say

8. commonplace or trite remarks

9. people who follow an art or science only for amusement and in a superficial way

10. having or showing little or no emotion or sensitivity

11. the origin and development of a word or phrase

12. a period that is relatively stable, or during which there is little change

15. rough or abrupt in manner or speech