

Name: _____

Date: _____

Foetal Alcohol Syndrome

Across

- 4. Where the alcohol crosses through to reach the foetus
- 5. A facial defect found on the lip
- 7. one of the main functions of the skeletal muscle
- 9. Effected during pregnancy
- 11. Where physical defects are most noticeable on the baby's body

12. The amount of body systems affected by the condition

14. The name of the condition which causes the aorta to become narrow

Down

- 1. The most non-genetic cause of...
- 2. A sign of abnormality with the central nervous system
- 3. The amount of time the condition lasts for

6. A disease of muscle tissue

8. The maximum unit of alcohol a pregnant woman is advised to have a week

10. Harmful substance that can cause birth defects

13. The organ affected mostly by alcohol during development